Govt appoints CAT's chairman, two members

The federal government has appointed the chairman and two members of the Competition Appellate Tribunal to decide 170 pending cases involving revenue to the tune of billions.

According to a notification issued by the Federal Ministry of Law and Justice, Justice Sajjad Ali Shah, a former judge of the Supreme Court of Pakistan, has been appointed as the chairman of the Competition Appellate Tribunal.

Additionally, Dr Faiz Elahi Memon and Asim Akram have been appointed as members of the tribunal.

The CAT in Pakistan is a specialized forum that handles appeals against decisions of the Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP). Previously, in November 2023, the federal government had appointed former justice Mazhar Alam Miankhel, former chief justice of the Peshawar High Court, as chairman of the tribunal. However, following his appointment as an ad hoc judge in the Supreme Court in June 2024, the tribunal once again became inactive.

Despite its brief period of functioning, the Competition Appellate Tribunal made significant progress in addressing pending cases. By July 2023, the tribunal had issued 30 orders on appeals filed against CCP's decisions, enabling the CCP to recover Rs 100 million in compliance with these orders.

The Competition Tribunal was established under Section 43 of the Competition Act, 2010, and comprises a chairperson and two technical members. Under Section 42 of the Act, any party can file an appeal against the Commission's decision or an order of the Appellate Bench within 60 days.

Over the last 10 years, the tribunal remained inactive for nearly 8.4 years, creating significant legal complications. In the absence of an operational tribunal, companies often approached the High Courts, leading to stay orders causing further delays in legal proceedings.

The Competition Commission of Pakistan currently has 567 pending cases in various courts, involving the penalties worth approx. Rs 74 billion. Additionally, 170 cases are pending before the Competition Appellate Tribunal, while 140 appeals remain unresolved in various High Courts and 177 cases are pending in the Supreme Court.

The Chairman CCP Dr Kabir Sidhu expressed satisfaction with this new development, emphasizing that a functional Tribunal would expedite decisions in pending cases. Delays in resolving appeals had previously hindered the implementation of vital CCP orders across diverse sectors such as sugar, cement, fertilizer, telecom, banks, and consumer goods. The resolution of such cases is anticipated to bring clarity and efficiency to the affected industries at large.

Government appoints new chairman, members to revive Competition Appellate Tribunal

The federal government has reconstituted the Competition Appellate Tribunal (CAT) by appointing a new chairman and two members, restoring its operations after a period of inactivity.

A notification issued by the Ministry of Law and Justice on Thursday confirmed the appointments.

Justice Sajjad Ali Shah, a former Supreme Court judge, has been named chairman of the tribunal, while Dr. Faiz Elahi Memon and Asim Akram have been appointed as members. The tribunal serves as the appellate body for cases challenging the decisions of the Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP).

The tribunal had been non-functional since June 2024, following the elevation of its previous chairman, Justice (Retd) Mazhar Alam Miankhel, to an ad hoc judgeship in the Supreme Court. Miankhel had been appointed as CAT chairman in November 2023, briefly resuming its activities before his departure left the tribunal inactive once again.

During its last operational phase, the tribunal made significant progress in clearing pending cases. By July 2023, it had issued 30 rulings on appeals against CCP decisions, leading to the recovery of Rs100 million in compliance with its verdicts. With the latest appointments, the tribunal is expected to resume hearing cases and address pending competition-related disputes.

وفاقی حکومت نے کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل کے چیئرمین اور ممبران کی تقرری کردی

وفاقی حکومت نے کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل کے چیئرمین اور اس کے دو ممبران کو تعینات کر دیا ہے۔ وفاقی وزارت قانون و انصاف کی جانب سے جاری نوٹیفکیشن کے مطابق سپریم کورٹ آف پاکستان کے سابق جج جسٹس سجاد علی شاہ کو کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل کا چیئرمین تعینات کیا گیا ہے۔ نوٹیفکیشن کے مطابق، ڈاکٹر فیض الہی مہمن اور عاصم اکرم کو ایپلٹ ٹریبونل کے ممبران کے طور پر تعینات کیا گیا ہے۔ قبل ازیں نومبر 2023 میں وفاقی حکومت نے سابق چیف جسٹس پشاور ہائیکورٹ جسٹس (ر) مظہر عالم میاں خیل کو چیئرمین کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل مقرر کیا تھا تاہم جون 2024 میں ان کی سپریم کورٹ میں بطور ایڈہاک جج تقرری کے بعد کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل دوبارہ غیر فعال ہو گیا تھا۔

اس کے باوجود ایپلٹ ٹریبونل نے اپنی فعالیت کے اس قلیل عرصہ میں بڑی حد تک زیر التوا مقدمات نمٹائے۔

گزشتہ برس جولائی تک کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل نے کمپٹیشن کمیشن کے فیصلوں کے خلاف دائر اپیلوں پر 30 آرڈر جاری کئے۔ واضح رہے کہ کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل کو کمپٹیشن کمیشن کے ایکٹ 2010 کے سیکشن 43 کے تحت قائم کیا گیا جو ایک چیئرپرسن اور 2 ٹیکنیکل ممبرز پر مشتمل ہوتا ہے۔ اس ایکٹ کے سیکشن 42 کے تحت ایک پارٹی کمیشن کے فیصلے یا ایپلٹ بینچ کے آرڈر کے خلاف 60 روز کے اندر درخواست دائر کر سکتی ہے تاہم گزشتہ 10 برسوں میں سے ساڑھے 8 سال تک یہ ٹریبونل تقریباً غیر فعال رہا جس کی وجہ سے قانونی معاملات میں کئی پیچیدگیوں نے جنم لیا۔

اس ٹریبونل کی عدم موجودگی میں کمپنیاں عموماً ہائیکورٹس سے رجوع کرتی ہیں جس کی وجہ سے معاملات مزید تاخیر کا شکار ہو جاتے ہیں۔ یہی وجہ ہے کہ کمیشن میں تاحال 567 کیسز زیر التوا ہیں جن میں 74 ارب روپے کے جرمانے شامل ہیں۔ دوسری جانب کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل میں تقریباً 170 کیسز جبکہ مختلف ہائیکورٹس میں 140 درخواستیں زیر التوا ہیں، جبکہ 177 مقدمات سپریم کورٹ میں زیر سماعت ہیں۔

چیئرمین کمپٹیشن کمیشن آف پاکستان ڈاکٹر کبیر احمد سدھو نے کمپٹیشن ایپلٹ ٹریبونل کی فعالیت پر اطمینان کا اظہار کرتے ہوئے امید ظاہر کی ہے کہ ایک فعال ٹریبونل زیر التوا مقدمات کو تیزی سے نمٹائے گا۔ زیر التوا مقدمات اور ان کے فیصلوں میں تاخیر سے چینی، سیمنٹ، کھاد، ٹیلی کام، بینکوں اور اشیائے ضروریہ سمیت دیگر شعبوں کے حوالے سے کمپٹیشن کمیشن کے اہم احکامات کے نفاذ میں بڑی رکاوٹ پیدا ہو گئی تھی تاہم اب توقع کی جارہی ہے کہ ان اپیلوں کے فیصلے سنائے جانے کے بعد متاثرہ صنعتوں کی کارکردگی میں واضح تبدیلی نظر آنے لگی۔

Chairman and members of Competition Appellate Tribunal appointed

By our correspondent

KARACHI: The federal government has appointed the chairman and two members of the Competition Appellate Tribunal.

According to a notification issued by the Federal Ministry of Law and Justice, Justice Sajjad Ali Shah, a former judge of the Supreme Court of Pakistan, has been appointed as the chairman of the Competition Appellate Tribunal. Additionally, Dr Faiz Elahi Memon and Asim Akram have been appointed as members of the Tribunal.

The Competition Appellate Tribunal is a specialized forum that handles appeals against decisions of the Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP). Previously, in November 2023, the federal government had appointed Justice (R) Muzhar Alam Miankhel, former Chief Justice of the Peshawar High Court, as chairman of the tribunal. However, following his appointment as an ad hoc judge in the Supreme Court in June 2024, the tribunal once again became inactive.

Despite its brief period of functioning, the Competition Appellate Tribunal made significant progress in addressing pending cases. By July 2023, the tribunal had issued 30 orders on appeals filed against the CCP's decisions, enabling the CCP to recover Rs 100 million in compliance with these orders.

The Competition Tribunal was established under Section 43 of the Competition Act, 2010, and comprises a chairperson and two technical members. Under Section 42 of the Act, any party can file an appeal against the Commission's decision or an order of the Appellate Bench within 60 days. Over the last 10 years, the tribunal remained inactive for over 8 years, creating significant legal complications. In the Under Section 42 of the Act, any party can file an appeal against the Commission's decision or an order of the Appellate Bench within 60 days. However, over the last 10 years, the tribunal remained inactive for nearly 7.5 years, creating significant legal complications. In the absence of an operational tribunal, companies often approached the High Courts, leading to further delays in legal proceedings. The Competition Commission of Pakistan currently has 567 pending cases in various courts, involving the penalties worth approximately Rs74 billion. Additionally, 212 cases are pending before the Competition Appellate Tribunal, while 140 appeals remain unresolved in various High Courts. Chairman CCP Dr Kahir Siddhu expressed satisfaction with this new development, emphasizing that a functional Tribunal would expedite decisions in pending cases. Delays in resolving appeals had previously hindered the implementation of vital CCP orders across diverse sectors such as sugar, cement, fertilizer, telecom, banks, and consumer goods. The resolution of such cases is anticipated to bring clarity and efficiency to the affected industries at large.

Additionally, Dr. Faiz Elahi Memon and Asim Akram have been appointed as members.

The CAT in Pakistan is a specialized forum that handles appeals against decisions of the Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP).

Previously, in November 2023, the federal government had appointed Justice (Retd.) Mazhar Alam Miankhal, former Chief Justice of the Peshawar High Court, as chairman.

However, following his appointment as an ad hoc judge in the Supreme Court in June 2024, the tribunal once again became inactive, according to the press release issued today.

Despite its brief period of functioning, the tribunal made significant progress in addressing pending cases.

By July 2023, it had issued 30 orders on appeals filed against CCP's decisions, enabling the CCP to recover Rs100 million in compliance with these orders.

The tribunal was established under Section 43 of the Competition

Act, 2010, and comprises a chairperson and two technical members.

Under Section 42 of the Act, any party can file an appeal against the Commission's decision or an order of the Appellate Bench within 60 days.

Over the last 10 years, the tribunal remained inactive for nearly 8.4 years, leading to significant legal complications.

In the absence of an operational tribunal, companies often approached the High Courts, resulting in stay orders that further delayed legal proceedings.

The Competition Commission of Pakistan currently has 567 pending cases in various courts, involving penalties worth approximately Rs74 billion.

Additionally, 170 cases are pending before the Competition Appellate Tribunal, while 140 appeals remain unresolved in various High Courts and 177 cases are pending in the Supreme Court.

Chairman CCP Dr. Kabir Sidhu welcomed the new appointments, emphasizing that a functional tribunal would expedite decisions in pending cases.

He noted that delays in resolving appeals had previously hindered the implementation of vital CCP orders across multiple sectors, including sugar, cement, fertilizer, telecom, banks, and consumer goods.

The resolution of such cases is expected to bring clarity and efficiency to the affected industries. AGENCIES
