CCP okays acquisition of 50pc shareholding in TPPL by Aquashore SA

The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) has granted approval for the acquisition of 50 percent shareholding in Total Parco Pakistan Limited (TPPL) by Aquashore SA, a company operating under Switzerland's Gunvor Group.

Under the terms of the Sale and Purchase Agreement, these shares will be transferred from TotalEnergies Marketing Services to Aquashore SA.

In the petroleum sector, this acquisition marks the latest in a series of high-profile transactions recently approved by the CCP.

Earlier this year, Saudi Aramco acquired 40 percent equity stake in GO Petroleum, while another Saudi group, Wafi Energy Holding Limited, acquired 77.42 percent shareholding and control of Shell Pakistan Limited.

These transactions highlight the growing interest of global energy giants in Pakistan's dynamic energy sector.

Gunvor Group, one of the world's premier commodities trading companies, brings vast experience in trading and logistics.

Through this transaction, Gunvor aims to enhance operational logistics, safety standards, and competitive solutions that bridge global energy supply and demand. Gunvor's vast experience in commodities trading and logistics provides Aquashore SA with a strategic advantage, aligning well with Pakistan's expanding demand for efficient and secure energy solutions.

TPPL operates an extensive network of retail fuel stations and provides a diverse range of essential products, including automotive and industrial lubricants.

The CCP has defined the relevant product markets for this transaction as 'Retail Fuel, Automotive Lubricants, and Industrial Lubricants.

As Aquashore SA prepares to expand its operations in Pakistan, this acquisition strengthens its global business footprint. It also signifies a positive trend for foreign investment in Pakistan's energy and automotive sectors, paving the way for enhanced services, improved supply-chain reliability, and a more competitive market landscape. https://www.brecorder.com/news/40333235/ccp-okays-acquisition-of-50pc-shareholding-in-tppl-by-aquashore-sa

CCP approves Gunvor Group's 50pc acquisition of Total Parco

The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) has granted approval for the acquisition of a 50 per cent shareholding in Total Parco Pakistan Limited (TPPL) by Aquashore SA, a subsidiary of Switzerland-based Gunvor Group.

The approval, confirmed in a statement on Monday, marks a significant development in the country's energy sector, particularly within the petroleum and lubricants industries. Under the terms of the sale and purchase agreement (SPA), Aquashore SA will acquire the shares currently held by TotalEnergies Marketing Services.

This deal is the latest in a series of notable transactions in Pakistan's petroleum industry, underscoring growing international interest in the country's energy sector. Earlier this year, Saudi Aramco acquired a 40 per cent equity stake in GO Petroleum, while another Saudi-based group, Wafi Energy Holding Limited, secured control of Shell Pakistan with a 77.42 per cent shareholding. These transactions reflect a broader trend of global energy giants targeting Pakistan as an emerging market for investment and expansion.

Gunvor Group, one of the world's leading commodities trading firms, is recognised for its extensive expertise in energy trading and logistics. With this acquisition, Gunvor aims to leverage its vast experience to enhance operational logistics, improve safety standards and provide competitive solutions that meet both local and global energy demands. By acquiring a significant stake in TPPL, Gunvor is poised to further cement its presence in the South Asian market, tapping into Pakistan's increasing demand for reliable and efficient energy solutions.

Total Parco Pakistan Limited operates an extensive network of retail fuel stations and is a key player in the automotive and industrial lubricants markets. The company's portfolio includes a wide range of products essential to Pakistan's transportation and industrial sectors, including high-performance automotive lubricants, as well as oils and lubricants for industrial machinery.

The CCP, in its review of the acquisition, defined the relevant product markets as 'retail fuel', 'automotive lubricants', and 'industrial lubricants', indicating the broad scope of TPPL's operations and the significant impact this acquisition will have on the local market.

As Aquashore SA -- under the umbrella of Gunvor Group -- prepares to expand its operations in Pakistan, this acquisition strengthens its global business footprint and positions the company for long-term success in one of the region's most promising markets. The move also signals a positive trend for foreign investment in Pakistan's energy and automotive sectors, fostering a more competitive market environment.

CCP Approves Gunvor Group's Acquisition of 50% Stake in Total Parco

The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) has approved the acquisition of 50% shares in Total Parco Pakistan Limited (TPPL) by Aquashore SA, a subsidiary of Switzerland's Gunvor Group. The shares will be transferred from TotalEnergies Marketing Services under a recently finalized Sale and Purchase Agreement.

A Milestone in Petroleum Transactions

This acquisition is among several high-profile deals recently approved in Pakistan's petroleum sector. Earlier this year, Saudi Aramco acquired a 40% stake in GO Petroleum, while Wafi Energy Holding Limited took over 77.42% of Shell Pakistan Limited. These transactions highlight the rising interest of global energy players in Pakistan's growing energy market.

Gunvor Group is a global leader in commodities trading and logistics. Its subsidiary, Aquashore SA, aims to utilize this expertise to enhance operational efficiencies, safety standards, and supply-chain reliability in Pakistan. By aligning global energy supply with local demand, Gunvor seeks to contribute to Pakistan's energy resilience and market competitiveness.

Total Parco's Strong Market Presence

TPPL operates an extensive network of retail fuel stations across Pakistan. It also offers a wide range of automotive and industrial lubricants. The CCP identified three key product markets for this transaction: retail fuel, automotive lubricants, and industrial lubricants.

This acquisition reflects a positive trend for foreign investment in Pakistan's energy and automotive sectors. It strengthens Gunvor's global business footprint and underscores Pakistan's growing appeal as an energy investment hub.

What the Acquisition Means for Pakistan

The deal is expected to improve service quality, ensure supply-chain reliability, and foster a more competitive market. With Aquashore SA's operational expansion, Pakistan's energy sector stands to gain from enhanced infrastructure and expertise.

The transaction also signifies a robust future for Pakistan's fuel and lubricants market. It promises improved products and services for consumers and increased economic activity in related industries.
