Saeed Nawaz joins CCP as fourth member

By our correspondent

ISLAMABAD: Mr Saeed Ahmad Nawaz has joined the Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) as its Fourth Member.

Saeed Nawaz holds an MBA from the University of the Punjab with a specialization in finance. He secured the Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship in 2002-3 and studied finance and economics at Boston University, US.

Mr Nawaz was awarded the World Bank-Government of Pakistan-sponsored Professional Development Program Award in 2006-7. He completed M.Sc. in Local Economic Development from the London School of Economics, UK, expanding his academic horizons and engaging with public-private sector organizations in the US and the UK.

He commenced his professional journey as a commissioned officer in the Pakistan Army and was inducted into the District Management Group. He has served in various positions for the Governments of Punjab and KPK, ranging from sub-divisions to provincial departments. His diverse roles included team leadership and staff-officer positions.

At the National School of Public Policy, he served as Directing Staff, Chief Instructor, and Head of Administration. During his service in the Federal Secretariat, he handled a spectrum of critical issues, including COVID-19 relief measures, industrial policy, corporate governance, poverty alleviation, and social security. His last assignment was as the Managing Director, Pakistan Agriculture Storage and Services Corporation (PASSCO).
