CCP approves Junaid Jamshed-U&I Garments merger

The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) has approved the proposed merger of Junaid Jamshed (Private) Limited (JJPL) with and into U&I Garments (Private) Limited (U&I).

The merger application was jointly submitted by U&I and JJPL, seeking CCP's authorization for the acquisition of the entire business of JJPL by U&I through a share swap arrangement. Following the completion of the transaction, JJPL will cease to exist as a separate legal entity, and its operations, assets, and liabilities will be fully integrated into U&I.

The CCP conducted a Phase-I competition assessment to evaluate whether the proposed merger would result in the creation or strengthening of a dominant position in the relevant markets, which include ready-made apparel, footwear, accessories, fragrances, and cosmetics.

The CCP noted that the transaction is primarily an intra-group consolidation, as U&I already holds a 25% stake in JJPL. The Commission determined that the transaction would not substantially lessen competition in any relevant market due to limited horizontal overlaps, low entry barriers, and the presence of numerous market competitors. Accordingly, CCP authorized the merger under Section 31(1)(d)(i) of the Competition Act, 2010.

CCP approves merger between Junaid Jamshed Ltd and U&I Garments

The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) approved the merger of Junaid Jamshed (Private) Limited (JJPL) with U&I Garments (Private) Limited (U&I), according to a CCP statement. The two companies jointly submitted an application to seek CCP's authorization for U&I to acquire JJPL's entire business through a share swap arrangement. Following the completion of the merger, JJPL will cease to exist as a separate legal entity, and its assets, liabilities, and operations will be fully integrated into U&I.

To assess the potential impact on competition, the CCP carried out a Phase-I competition evaluation. This assessment focused on relevant markets, including ready-made apparel, footwear, accessories, fragrances, and cosmetics, to determine whether the merger would lead to the creation or strengthening of a dominant market position.

The CCP noted that the transaction was mainly an intra-group consolidation, as U&I already holds a 25% stake in JJPL. Additionally, the Commission concluded that the merger would not substantially lessen competition in any of the relevant markets, due to factors such as the presence of numerous competitors, low barriers to entry, and limited horizontal overlaps.

As a result, the CCP authorized the merger under Section 31(1)(d)(i) of the Competition Act, 2010.

سی سی پی نے جنید جمشید، یو اینڈ آئی گارمنٹس کے انضمام کی منظوری دے دی
مسابقتی کمیشن آف پاکستان (سی سی پی) نے جنید جمشید (پرائیویٹ) لمیٹڈ (جے جے پی ایل) کو یو اینڈ آئی گارمنٹس (پرائیویٹ) لمیٹڈ (یو اینڈ آئی) لمیٹڈ (یو اینڈ آئی) میں ضم کرنے کی منظوری دے دی ہے۔ یہ بات مسابقتی کمیشن نے منگل کو جاری کردہ اپنے بیان میں بتائی ہے۔

انضمام کی درخواست یو اینڈ آئی اور جے جے پی ایل نے مشترکہ طور پر جمع کرائی تھی، جس میں حصص کے تبادلے کے انتظامات کے ذریعے جے جے پی ایل کے پورے کاروبار کے حصول کے لیے سی سی پی کی اجازت مانگی گئی تھی۔ ٹرانزیکشن کی تکمیل کے بعد جے جے پی ایل ایک علیحدہ قانونی ادارے کے طور پر موجود نہیں ہوگا اور اس کے آپریشنز، اثاثے اور ذمہ داریاں مکمل طور پر یو اینڈ آئی میں ضم ہوجائیں گی۔

سی سی پی نے اس بات کا جائزہ لینے کے لئے پہلے مرحلے کا تقابلی جائزہ لیا کہ آیا مجوزہ انضمام کے نتیجے میں متعلقہ مارکیٹس، جیسے کہ ملبوسات، جوتے، لوازمات، خوشبو اور کاسمیٹکس، میں کسی غلبے یا اجارہ داری کے قیام یا مضبوطی کا باعث تو نہیں بنے گا۔

سی سی پی نے نوٹ کیا کہ یہ ٹرانزیکشن ایک ہی گروپ کا اندرونی معاملہ ہے کیونکہ یو اینڈ آئی میں پہلے سے ہی 25 فیصد حصص کی مالک ہے۔

کمیشن نے قرار دیا کہ اس انضمام سے کسی بھی متعلقہ مارکیٹ میں مسابقت نمایاں طور پر متاثر نہیں ہوگی کیونکہ دونوں کمپنیوں درمیان کاروباری مماثلت ہے جبکہ مارکیٹ میں داخلے کی رکاوٹیں کم ہیں اور متعدد مسابقتی کمپنیاں پہلے سے موجود ہیں۔

اس کے مطابق سی سی پی نے مسابقتی ایکٹ 2010 کی دفعہ 31 (1) (ڈی) (آئی) کے تحت انضمام کی اجازت د

CCP approves merger of Junaid Jamshed and U&I Garments

Commerce Desk

ISLAMABAD: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) has approved the proposed merger of Junaid Jamshed (Private) Limited (JJPL) with and into U&I Garments (Private) Limited (U&I).

The merger application was jointly submitted by U&I and JJPL, seeking CCP authorization for the acquisition of the entire business of JJPL by U&I through a share swap arrangement. Following the completion of the transaction, JJPL will cease to exist as a separate legal entity, and its operations, assets, and liabilities will be fully integrated into U&I.

CCP conducted a Phase-I competition assessment to evaluate whether the proposed merger would result in the creation or strengthening of a dominant position in the relevant markets, which include ready-made apparel, footwear, accessories, fragrances, and cosmetics.

CCP noted that the transaction is primarily an intra-group consolidation, as U&I already holds a 25% stake in JJPL. The Commission determined that the transaction would not substantially lessen competition in any relevant market due to limited horizontal overlaps, low entry barriers, and the presence of numerous market competitors. Accordingly, CCP authorized the merger under Section 3(1) (i)(i) of the Competition Act, 2010.
