

Date: 24 February, 2021

Press Release Coverage

CCP CMA Capacity Building Program

CCP, CMA (UK) launch capacity building programme

ISLAMABAD: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on various enforcement techniques and methodologies, said a press release issued on Tuesday.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on "Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations" were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team.

Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers and Acquisitions, and other senior officials, also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Alex Schofield (principal policy advisor), Eva Nickel (assistant director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (assistant director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns.— PR

CCP-CMA launch capacity building workshops

Our correspondent

ISLAMABAD: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity-building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of CCP enforcement team. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in-charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Adviser), Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels) and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews.

The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

CCP, CMA launch capacity building workshops

ISLAMABAD (Staff Reporter): The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies. As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team. Mr Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions. The CMA team comprising Mr Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

CCP launches capacity building programme

Staff Report

The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA) on Tuesday launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team. Mr. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions. The CMA team comprising Mr. Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms. Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions. In the first session, Ms. Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Mr. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews. The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such a series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

سی سی پی انفورسمنٹ ٹیم کیلئے

صلاحیت سازی کے پروگرام کا آغاز

اسلام آباد (نئی بات رپورٹ) کمپنیشن کمیشن آف پاکستان (سی سی پی) نے برطانیہ کی کمپنیشن اور مارکیٹ اتھارٹی (سی ایم اے) کیساتھ اشتراک سے صلاحیت سازی کی ورکشاپس کا ایک سلسلہ شروع کیا ہے جس میں سی ایم اے کے عہدیدار اور ماہرین سی سی پی کے عملے کو مختلف انفورسمنٹ کی تکنیک اور طریقہ کار کی تربیت دیں گے۔ سی سی پی اور سی ایم اے کے مابین اس نئے تعاون کے نتیجے میں دو آن لائن سیشنز جنریننگ کیس لیڈز اور پلاننگ کارٹیل انو-سٹی گیشن منعقد ہوئے، جس میں سی سی پی کی انفورسمنٹ ٹیم کے 30 افسران نے شرکت کی۔

سی سی پی کی سی ایم اے کیساتھ اشتراک سے صلاحیت سازی کی ورکشاپس

انفورسمنٹ کے موثر نتائج برآمد کرنے میں مشکلات، انٹرویو کے طریقوں سے آگاہ کیا

اسلام آباد (سپیشل رپورٹ) کمپیشن کمیشن آف مارکیٹ اتھارٹی (سی ایم اے) کے ساتھ اشتراک پاکستان (سی سی پی) نے برطانیہ کی کمپیشن اور سے صلاحیت سازی کی صفحہ 7 پر بقیہ نمبر 47

ورکشاپس

بقیہ 47

ورکشاپس کا ایک سلسلہ شروع کیا ہے جس میں سی ایم اے کے عہدیدار اور ماہرین سی سی پی کے عملے کو مختلف انفورسمنٹ کی تکنیک اور طریقہ کار کی تربیت دیں گے سی سی پی اور سی ایم اے کے مابین اس نئے تعاون کے نتیجے میں دو آن لائن سیشنز، جزیٹنگ کیس لیڈز اور پلاننگ کارٹیل انویسٹی گیشن منعقد ہوئے، جس میں سی سی پی کی انفورسمنٹ ٹیم کے 30 افسران نے شرکت کی۔

DAILY

THE DESTINATION

NEWS THAT TRAVELS

Tuesday | 23 Feb, 2021 | Rajab, 1442 | Islamabad | www.dailythdestination.com

CCP, CMA (UK) launches capacity building programme for CCP enforcement team

Competition Commission of Pakistan

Creating a level playing field

Competition & Markets Authority

ISLAMABAD (Press Release):

The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of CCP enforcement team. Mr. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Mr. Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms. Eva Nickel

(Assistant Director, Cartels) and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Ms. Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Mr. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews. The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

CCP, CMA (UK) LAUNCHES CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME FOR CCP ENFORCEMENT TEAM

ISLAMABAD, 23 FEBRUARY 2021: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms. Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Ms. Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews.

The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such a series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

24 February 2020

Online

CCP, CMA (UK) LAUNCHES CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME FOR CCP ENFORCEMENT TEAM

ISLAMABAD, 23 FEBRUARY 2021: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms. Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Ms. Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews.

The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such a series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

CCP, CMA (UK) LAUNCHES CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME FOR CCP ENFORCEMENT TEAM

ISLAMABAD, 23 FEBRUARY 2021: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms. Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Ms. Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews.

The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such a series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

24 February 2020

Online

CCP, CMA (UK) LAUNCHES CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME FOR CCP ENFORCEMENT TEAM

ISLAMABAD, 23 FEBRUARY 2021: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms. Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Ms. Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews.

The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such a series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

24 February 2020
Online

CCP, CMA (UK) LAUNCHES CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME FOR CCP ENFORCEMENT TEAM

ISLAMABAD, 23 FEBRUARY 2021: The Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP), in collaboration with the United Kingdom's Competition and Market Authority (CMA), has launched a series of capacity building workshops wherein the CMA's officials and experts will train the CCP's staff on different enforcement techniques and methodologies.

As part of this renewed collaboration between the CCP and CMA, two sessions on 'Generating Case Leads and Planning Cartel Investigations' were held online, which were attended by 30 officers of the CCP enforcement team. Mujtaba Ahmad Lodhi, who is currently in charge of the Office of International Affairs and Mergers & Acquisitions, and other senior officials also participated in the sessions.

The CMA team comprising Alex Schofield (Principal Policy Advisor), Ms. Eva Nickel (Assistant Director, Cartels), and Gary Bracken (Assistant Director, Investigation), gave presentations in these sessions.

In the first session, Ms. Eva Nickel was the presenter who focused on the UK's cartel regime and leniency program, stages of a CMA leniency application in practice, and ex-officio investigations and campaigns. Gary Bracken, Assistant Director, Investigation, was the presenter in the second session and briefed the participants on planning investigations, issues in delivering effective enforcement outcomes, and effective methods of conducting inspections and interviews.

The CCP acknowledged the CMA's efforts in enhancing collaboration and building cooperation between the two agencies. Such a series of sessions for various other topics will be continued in near future.

اردو پوائنٹ

مسلسل اشاعت کے 20 شاندار سال

24 February 2020

Online

سی سی پی کا سی ایم اے (برطانیہ) کے اشتراک سے سی سی پی انفور سمنٹ ٹیم کے لئے صلاحیت سازی کے پروگرام کا آغاز

📅 منگل 23 فروری 2021 ⌚ 23:56

اسلام آباد (اردو پوائنٹ اخبار تازہ ترین - این این آئی - 23 فروری 2021ء) کمپنیشن کمیشن آف پاکستان (سی سی پی) نے برطانیہ کی کمپنیشن اور مارکیٹ اتھارٹی (سی ایم اے) کے ساتھ اشتراک سے صلاحیت سازی کی ورکشاپس کا ایک سلسلہ شروع کیا ہے جس میں سی ایم اے کے عمدیدار اور ماہرین سی سی پی کے عملے کو مختلف انفور سمنٹ کی تکنیک اور طریقہ کار کی تربیت دیں گے۔ سی سی پی اور سی ایم اے کے مابین اس نئے تعاون کے نتیجے میں دو آن لائن سیشنز، بزنسنگ کمپنیز لیڈز اور پلاننگ کارٹیل انویسٹی گیشن، منعقد ہوئے، جس میں سی سی پی کی انفور سمنٹ ٹیم کے 30 افسران نے شرکت کی۔

سی سی پی کے ممبر آفس آف انٹرنیشنل آفیز مجتبیٰ احمد لودھی اور دیگر اعلیٰ عمدیداران نے بھی ان سیشنز میں شرکت کی۔ سی ایم اے ٹیم، جس میں مسٹر الیکس سکھیلڈ (پرنسپل پالیسی ایڈوازر)، مس ایوانکل (اسٹنٹ ڈائریکٹر، کارٹیلز) اور گیری بریکن (اسٹنٹ ڈائریکٹر، انویسٹی گیشن) شامل ہیں، نے ان سیشنوں میں پریزنٹیشنز دیں۔

پہلے سیشن میں مس ایوانکل نے برطانیہ کے کارٹیل رجیم اور لینیٹ پروگرام، عملی طور پر سی ایم اے کی لینیٹ کی درخواست کے مراحل، اور ایکس آفیشو انویسٹی گیشن پر روشنی ڈالی۔

مسٹر گیری بریکن، اسٹنٹ ڈائریکٹر، انویسٹی گیشن، نے دوسرے سیشن میں شرکاء کو تحقیقات کی منصوبہ بندی کرنے، انفور سمنٹ کے موثر نتائج برآمد کرنے میں مشکلات، اور انسپیکشن اور انٹرویو کرنے کے موثر طریقوں سے آگاہ کیا۔ سی سی پی نے دونوں آئیٹیموں کے مابین باہمی تعاون بڑھانے میں سی ایم اے کی کاوشوں کا اعتراف کیا۔ دیگر مختلف کمپنیشن کے موضوعات پر اس طرح کا سلسلہ مستقبل قریب میں بھی جاری رکھا جائے گا۔

سی سی پی کا سی ایم اے (برطانیہ) کے اشتراک سے سی سی پی انفورسمنٹ ٹیم کے لئے صلاحیت سازی کے پروگرام کا آغاز

منگل 23 فروری 2021 23:56

اسلام آباد (اُردو پوائنٹ اخبارتازہ ترین - این این آئی - 23 فروری 2021ء) کمپنیشن کمیشن آف پاکستان (سی سی پی) نے برطانیہ کی کمپنیشن اور مارکیٹ اتھارٹی (سی ایم ای) کے ساتھ اشتراک سے صلاحیت سازی کی ورکشاپس کا ایک سلسلہ شروع کیا ہے جس میں سی ایم اے کے ہمدیدار اور ماہرین سی سی پی کے عملے کو مختلف انفورسمنٹ کی تکنیک اور طریقہ کار کی تربیت دیں گے۔ سی سی پی اور سی ایم اے کے مابین اس نئے تعاون کے نتیجے میں دو آن لائن سیشنز: 'بزنسنگ کیس لیزر' اور 'پلاننگ کارٹیل انویسٹی گیشن' منعقد ہوئے، جس میں سی سی پی کی انفورسمنٹ ٹیم کے 30 افسران نے شرکت کی۔

سی سی پی کے ممبر آفس آف انٹرنیشنل آفیز مجتبیٰ احمد لودھی اور دیگر اعلیٰ ہمدیداران نے بھی ان سیشنز میں شرکت کی۔ سی ایم اے ٹیم، جس میں مسٹر الیکس سکھیلڈ (پریسل پالیسی ایڈوایزر)، مس ایوانکل (اسلٹ ڈائریکٹر، کارٹیلر) اور گیری بریکن (اسلٹ ڈائریکٹر، انویسٹی گیشن) شامل ہیں، نے ان سیشنوں میں پریزنٹیشنز دیں۔

پہلے سیشن میں مس ایوانکل نے برطانیہ کے کارٹیل رجم اور لینینٹ پروگرام، عملی طور پر سی ایم اے کی لینینٹ کی درخواست کے مراحل، اور ایکس آفیشو انویسٹی گیشن پر روشنی ڈالی۔

مسٹر گیری بریکن، اسلٹ ڈائریکٹر، انویسٹی گیشن، نے دوسرے سیشن میں شرکاء کو تحقیقات کی منصوبہ بندی کرنے، انفورسمنٹ کے موثر نتائج برآمد کرنے میں مشکلات، اور انسپیکشن اور انٹرویو کرنے کے موثر طریقوں سے آگاہ کیا۔ سی سی پی نے دونوں آپجکٹیو کے مابین باہمی تعاون بڑھانے میں سی ایم اے کی کاوشوں کا اعتراف کیا۔ دیگر مختلف کمپنیشن کے موضوعات پر اس طرح کا سلسلہ مستقبل قریب میں بھی جاری رکھا جائے گا۔